

● Where do you make new friends?

I meet new friends... at school / at parties / through friends / outside / on the internet / at my sports club (football, baseball, volleyball...) / at camp / during after-school activities (band, Scouts).

● How often do you meet your friends?

My friends and I see / meet each other / spend time together... quite often / every weekend / when we have free time / only sometimes. We see each other... all the time / once a week / every day... at school / after school / only during the summer holidays. When we don't see each other, we chat online / on Facebook.

● Who is a real friend? What is important about him / her?

A friend is somebody who is... fun / helpful / intelligent / kind / understanding. Real friends are people who... have similar interests / hobbies / you can ask for advice or help / you can depend on / you can stay friends with even if you have a fight / an argument.

● Is it easy for you to make new friends?

Yes, I have no problems meeting new people. / I like to... talk to new people / make new friends. I need a lot of people around me. / No, it's very difficult for me. I am... shy / quiet / afraid to talk to... strangers / somebody I don't know. It takes time for me to get to know people.

● Are friends more important than family?

Sometimes I feel better with my family / friends... My friends understand me better... My mum / dad always / never help me ... / they never / sometimes forget about me... Sometimes I can't speak to my parents about my problems. They get angry or don't understand. It is difficult to say... / I prefer family to friends.

● How do you like your family?

We are friendly to each other in my family. I like my sister because she... lends me her clothes / helps me with my homework / likes the same music / movies. I don't like my brother very much because... we don't have similar interests / he has different hobbies / he is much older than me. We always fight or argue. I have a normal family / parents / siblings. Sometimes we get on well, sometimes we argue. Sometimes I feel like we are total strangers.

● Describe the character of the person you date or would like to date.

I like / I prefer / people who are... I would like to find / meet / go out with someone who is... kind / romantic / intelligent / positive / somebody who is interested in me. I really like / love... a good sense of humour / someone who can make me laugh. I don't like / I don't care for / people who are... I would never go out with someone who is... unkind / lazy / boring / pushy.

● How can you meet a partner / a boyfriend / girlfriend?

I guess / I think ... most people meet... at school / at parties / at clubs / at concerts / through friends / on the internet / during (volunteer) work / while travelling. Many people... use a dating agency.

● Do you like someone? And what happens next?

First people like / fancy each other. Then they go on a date / go out. If they are serious about each other, they can get engaged. Next they either get married or break up. Or they just live together.
