

Bridge SYLLABUS 2018-19

MONTH	ENGLISH-SPEAKING COUNTRIES	LITERATURE	HOLIDAYS	GRAMMAR FIXER	SERIES: COUNTER-CULTURES	SERIES: THEN AND NOW	MATURITA CARD	TEST
SEPTEMBER 2018	“What have the English ever done for us?”	The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by R. L. Stevenson		“Tell me about your experience...”: How to use present perfect, past simple, and other tenses to talk about experiences.	Hippies	Telephone	Education	LanguageCert (sample)
OCTOBER 2018	“What have the Scots ever done for us?”	Ray Bradbury	Halloween	“Not a good news”: Avoiding the most common pitfalls with countable, uncountable and mass nouns.	Metalheads	The Internet	Fashion	PET
NOVEMBER 2018	“What have New Zealanders ever done for us?”	Poetry of the Season	Thanksgiving	“Best served with chicken”: The passive voice and when to use it.	Punk	Data Storage	Lifestyle
DECEMBER 2018	“What have Canadians ever done for us?”		Christmas	Looking good, feeling well”: Sensory verbs and other corners of English where adjectives and adverbs play funny tricks.	Geek and Nerd	Watching Films	Food
JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2019	“What have Americans ever done for us?”	The Tempest by William Shakespeare		“I would but I can’t”: Conditionals in everyday contexts.	Graffiti	Computer Games	Travelling	Maturita, FCE
MARCH 2019	“What have the Irish ever done for us?”	Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi		“Some Few of Us”: When a few is some , few is almost none , some is a and a few other tricks with determiners.	Hipsters	Getting News	Media / Communication
APRIL 2019	“What have Australians ever done for us?”	The Crucible by Arthur Miller	Earth Day, Easter	“He says she said”: When we do and don’t make time changes with reported speech.	Emo and Goth	Listening to Music	Environment	CAE
MAY-JUNE 2019	“What have the Welsh ever done for us?”	Modern Young Adult Fiction		“It can’t be her, so it must be him”: Modal verbs for deduction (with the help of Sherlock Holmes).	A selection of contemporary ones	Camera, Navigation	Geography / Places	