

TEACHERS' FILE

Teachers' File (TF) contains grammar, exercises and lesson plans based on the magazine and the CD. All materials are available online for registered users. The password: secret.

EXTRA ACTIVITY TIPS

THE DYATLOV PASS INCIDENT PART 1,
P. 9, CD TRACK 6

READING AND LISTENING COMPREHENSION

Read and listen to the adaptation of the Dyatlov Pass Incident and fill in the gaps in the summary with suitable words.

In January 1959, a group of 1 _____ Russian students went on a skiing 2 _____ to Otorten Mountain. However, they never 3 _____ back. A search 4 _____ was sent to find them. The rescuers found their clothes and 5 _____, which was strange. Why would they want to get undressed in subzero 6 _____? What was also strange is that the 7 _____ was cut from the 8 _____. It meant that the students tried to get away from something. Two kilometres from the camp they found the 9 _____ of two dead students. Then they found the rest of the group dead. The case was never 10 _____ and nobody knows why the students died on that night.

THE DYATLOV PASS INCIDENT, PART 2,
CD TRACK 7

READING AND LISTENING COMPREHENSION

Listen to the second part of the recording. Match the beginnings and endings of the sentences.

- 1 One theory is that the students were killed by a Menk,
 - 2 The Mansi tribe lived nearby,
 - 3 Another theory is that an avalanche killed the students,
 - 4 Infrasound is a very low sound,
 - 5 There are records of military testing in the area
 - 6 Other people in the area at the time
- A using parachute mines that cause a lot of internal damage.
 B but they were peaceful people.
 C but this area is not known for that type of activity.
 D a creature from Russian folklore.
 E reported seeing orange balls in the sky.
 F that humans cannot hear.

SOLUTIONS

1 nine, 2 expedition, 3 came, 4 party, 5 boots, 6 temperatures, 7 tent, 8 inside, 9 bodies, 10 solved
 1D, 2B, 3C, 4F, 5A, 6E