

www.bridge-online.cz

gate

Výukový materiál vybraný z anglického časopisu Gate, určený k volnému šíření a kopírování.

GATE ACTIVITY SHEET 1

SOLUTIONS

Windsors or Losers

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY

Example Sentences

A: The Queen is meeting the prime minister (Boris Johnson). The Queen is shaking hands with the prime minister. The prime minister is bowing. Official duties – the Queen opens new sessions of parliament and meets the prime minister regularly.

B: Prince William and Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge, are sitting with some children. There is a man playing the guitar. A woman is reading from a book. Positives – the royals do a lot of work for different charities.

C: The Queen and other people are standing in front of a large house or castle (Balmoral Castle). Finances – Places like Balmoral Castle in Scotland and Sandringham House in England have belonged to the House of Windsor for generations.

D: Lots of people / crowds are watching a royal wedding at Windsor Castle. You can see carriages with some wedding guests. Positives – Royal weddings / royals bring a lot of tourists to the UK.

E: Prince Harry and Meghan Markle are riding in a car on their wedding day. Scandals – the latest scandal has seen Prince Harry and his wife Meghan leave the royal family completely, to try and have a life away from all the craziness.

AFTER-READING ACTIVITY AND SPELLING CHECK

Factual mistakes: 1 The queen doesn't choose the Parliament, she opens new sessions of Parliament. 2 They fly around the world to represent the UK abroad, not to give people medals. 3 The Queen doesn't carry any money. 4 The royal family is worth around £70 billion, not million. 5 The royal family gets more than one pound from every person in the UK, not England. 6 A lot of the money is used to look after buildings like Buckingham Palace, not Balmoral Castle. 7 King Edward abdicated, not King George. 8 He fell in love with an American, not a Canadian. 9 The royal family stayed in London during the Second World War, not the First. 10 Thousands of tourists pay to visit royal castles and palaces, not to meet the Queen.

Spelling mistakes: 1 choses × chooses, 2 regulaly × regularly, 3 peeply × people, 4 borow × borrow, 5 milion × million, 6 luck × look, 7 skandals × scandals, 8 charitys × charities, 9 dificult × difficult, 10 turists × tourists

Royal Talk: 1C, 2C, 3B, 4B, 5A, 6B

Grammar Activity: Prince Philip is Prince Archie's great-grandfather / Prince Archie is Prince Philip's great-grandson.

Prince George is Prince Harry's nephew / Prince Harry is Prince George's uncle.

The Queen is Camilla's mother-in-law / Camilla is the Queen's daughter-in-law.

Prince Charles is Prince George's grandfather / Prince George is Prince Charles' grandson.

Meghan Markle is Kate Middleton's sister-in-law.

Prince William is Prince Harry's brother.